- Please note that the Organiser might make a surcharge for entries on the day of the event, so enter in plenty of time or check with the Organiser that you may enter on the day.

Information: This is an Event for experienced cyclists who will be aware of the following procedures:

- Whenever possible, familiarisation with the route before the event. Ensuring competence and fitness to complete the course, roadworthiness of the machine and possession of adequate cycle-repair equipment, spares and skills.
- During the event, riding safely, according to the rules of the road and personal capabilities and taking responsibility for personal feeding, warm clothing and rest periods, especially at night.
- Personally deciding not to continue if feeling unwell or too tired
- As with any journey on public roads being aware of and allowing for highway design and maintenance, other users (especially horses), busy traffic conditions, the state of disrepair of the surface (potholes, trenches, ironwork etc.), debris and obstructions of all kinds, poor or non-existent lighting on night sections and oncoming headlights.
- As some roads could be high and exposed, with hills that could be steep and strenuous, carrying adequate food, drink, clothing and equipment for any conditions; preparing the machine (and rider) and carrying spares and tools – and knowing how to use them.
- In the event of bad weather, making a personal decision over starting or continuing; also being equipped to deal with bad conditions.
- Making private arrangements if back-up or rescue facilities are wanted, although if this is the case undertaking this ride at all should be reconsidered.
- Being adequately rested before travelling home after finishing
As with all Audax UK rides you are on a private excursion on the public highway and subject to the law of the land, so ensure that you are fully self-sufficient and capable of handling all conditions as found on the day.

Please read the following carefully:

I have read, understand and accept the Information for AUK Events. I acknowledge that for the duration of the event I am on a private excursion on the public highway and that I am responsible for my own conduct at all times. I agree fully to abide by Audax UK Regulations for this ride. I am insured via my relevant Membership of CTC/BC/AUK, or apply for Temporary AUK Membership and enclose the Fee; for all other requirements additional, adequate personal travel insurance will be necessary.
